Sister Jeanne Marie was a Dominican nun at Prouilhe and at Chalais before settling in 1974 in Boscodon in the Hautes-Alpes. She led during almost 35 years the restoration of the abbey, a Roman art masterpiece, and the monastic buildings surrounding, firmly but warmly and open-minded and sharing spirit.

Aged 83, she draws the lesson for us of an extremely rich life, of a peculiar spiritual path, deeply rooted in concrete life. And she shows she remains widely open to the future with a lot of new meetings.
